Hello,

Enclosed is your Certificate of Model Management Registration.

The New York State Fashion Workers Act (NYS Labor Law, Article 36) contains responsibilities and requirements for model management companies, model management groups, and clients.

Once registered, model management companies must:

1. Post a physical copy of their Certificate of Registration in a clearly visible place in the office of the company.
2. Post a digital copy of their Certificate of Registration on their website.
3. Include the model management company's registration number in any advertisement seeking models to represent, including on the company's social media profiles.
4. Include the model management company's registration number in any contract with a model or client.
